

WAYS TO FIND PEOPLE

ONLINE

Post opportunities on local notice boards, forums, Facebook groups.

Promote on social media and ask your contacts to reshare.

Ask local volunteer centres to help promote.

OFFLINE

Contact local community groups and businesses and ask them to share.

Do a walk around the area – you will come across projects and businesses that don't have an online presence but might be really relevant to you.

Speak to councillors, school leaders and other representatives who are well connected.

Get involved in the community around you to meet the right people.

Go to your local council to access information about the demographics in your area.
